P.C.

1. It is submitted by the learned Counsel for the appellant that the parties are working out the settlement and the minutes of the settlement have already been tendered before the Family Court. In view of the same, the Court may direct the Family Court to consider the minutes of settlement arrived at between the parties and pass appropriate Orders, thereby disposing of all the matrimonial disputes between the parties pending before it.

2. We, therefore, dispose of this LPA with direction to the Family Court to dispose of all the matrimonial disputes pending before it between the parties in accordance with the consent terms/ minutes of settlement entered into between the parties, as expeditiously as possible.

3. The learned Counsel for the parties assure this Court that they will co-operate with the Family Court to dispose of all the matrimonial disputes pending between the parties, as expeditiously as possible.

4. In view of disposal of the LPA itself, the C.A does not survive and the same stands disposed of accordingly.
